Educational Seating

Made in Australia

Crafting the Future of Education.

Fineseat has consistently produced timeless, high quality chairs since its founding in 1986. Our Educational Seating range holds a vision: one where chairs aren't just objects to sit on, but carefully crafted formations that hold the key to changing the mood of a classroom, encourage collaboration and instill inspiration to the young, developing mind.

That is why we work closely with teachers and architects to work out the perfect seats for schools. Fineseat's Educational Seating range is highly customisable - pick your favourite fabric and colours to suit the school identity, or even pick out your school colours for some school pride. Dimensions can be customised to suit any room shape. The individual seats of a collection are easily movable so that you can reconfigure how you want your seats to be like. Combine seats of different collections even - the possibilities are endless. Your imagination is the only limit when it comes to Fineseat's Educational Seating range.
